worldbookonline.com

This panel shows a laptop, a smartphone, a tablet, and another tablet, all displaying the Science Projects website. The laptop screen is the largest and shows the full desktop layout. The other devices show the website adapted to their respective screen sizes. A white arrow points from the laptop to the World Book logo in the bottom left. The text 'Username' is at the top right with a left-pointing arrow, and 'Password' is at the bottom right with a right-pointing arrow.
