

ASIAN AMERICAN & PACIFIC ISLANDER HERITAGE MONTH

Examples & Resources in World Book Online.
Click underlined items to open.

TIMELINES

Learn about concepts in a new way with interactive timelines! With a My World Book Account, students can edit, add events, or create their own. A fun, project-based way to dive into AAPI Heritage Month.

Example path: World History > New Zealand History > History of New Zealand

EBOOKS

Browse our eBooks for more information on AAPI Heritage month. Some great categories to start in are History or Mythology, Legends, and Folklore.

WEBQUESTS

Send students on a guided quest of relevant topics like World War II: War in the Pacific or a relevant place like Get to Know: Philippines Available under Educator Tools in Kids, Student, and Advanced. Or, flip the activity and have students design their own quest for a classmate to complete.

- Search for content in Kids, Student, Advanced, and Discover.
- Test your knowledge with related drills in Wizard, if it is part of your subscription.
- Stay up-to-date with Behind the Headlines articles in Student and Advanced.
- Get your questions answered with World Book Explains in Discover.

BIOGRAPHIES

Visit the Biography Center in Student or Important People found in Kids to search for specific people or browse Asian Americans.

